

English comprehension

By malak talal

1. On what memorable day in history does this story take place?
. november 22,1963.
2. How does the narrator first become aware of eugene?
. she could see Eugene's backyard from her fire escape.
- 3.why does the narrator like eugene even before she meets him?
. she liked him because he would sit at the kitchen table and read for hours
4. According to her mother, how does elena seem to feel about eugene

- . she said she was acting “moony”
enamorda

5. How does eugene’s mother react to elena’s visit

- . she reacted angry and annoyed.

6.summary

- . American history is about a story of a girl named elena. Who dealt with bully and problems with black girls. And about how she viewed and had a crush on her neighbor and what she did in November 22,1963