Taking A Vacation

David: Did you say you're going to take a vacation next month?

Ruck: Yes, my family and I are going to New York for a week. We want to visit the museums and see some plays.

David: I envy you. I haven't had a vacation for a long time. I wish I could get away for a while.

Ruck: You can take a vacation sometime soon, can't you?

David: No, there's too much work to do. Maybe next year, though.

At the restaurant

Client- Good afternoon.

Waitress- Good afternoon! Can I help you?

Client - Can I book a table for one, please?

Waitress- Yes. Come with me.... Here you are.

Client - Thanks. Can I have the menu?

Waitress - Yes.

....

Waitress - The menu is on the table.

Client- So...I want roast beef with mashed potatoes.

Waitress - Would you like anything to drink?

Client - A coke, please.

....

Waitress - Can I bring you anything else?

Client - Yes, I want a portion of apple pie.

Waitress - Ok.

Waitress - Anything else?

Client- No, thanks. Could I have the bill, please?

Waitress - Of course.

Waitress - Here you are. Have a nice day.

Client - Thanks. You can keep the change. Have a nice day.

Waitress - Thanks. The same to you.
