

Absurdism: life has no meaning but humans strive to create meaning for it.

Absurdist Literature:

- a. ambiguity
- b. dreamlike features and fantasy
- c. alienation

Ambiguity can be seen in the story because there is no reason for the transformation of Gregor to a bug. This is also the dreamlike aspect .

Alienation because all aspects of Gregor's life revolves around isolation. He is job obsessed and his family's piggy bank.
