English	Alice in Wonderland  Focus: Story Plot Diagram  Students are required to reread the story at home in preparation for class.            During the lesson, they will independently complete a story plot diagram based on Alice in Wonderland. This will be an in-class graded assessment, so students must work individually without assistance.            Reviewing the story in advance is essential to ensure readiness and success.	Literature and Grammar Review            Students will review key literature elements and grammar skills covered in the unit. The lesson will focus on reinforcing understanding and preparing students for the exam through targeted review activities.	The exam will assess students' understanding of Alice in Wonderland, focusing on analyzing craft and structure, specifically direct and indirect characterization. The grammar section will cover conjunctions and interjections.  Alice's Adventures in Wonderland            Content will be based on pages 362-370 of the textbook.	In-Class Creative Writing – Alice's Adventure in the Rabbit Hole &amp; Library Visit  Imagine you are Alice: Describe what it feels like to fall down the rabbit hole. What do you see, hear, or smell?            Students will complete a fun, creative in-class writing activity based on the part of Alice in Wonderland when Alice follows the White Rabbit and falls into the rabbit hole.  Goal: Encourage imagination, storytelling, and descriptive writing. This will be graded, and students should work independently.	Introduction to Jabberwocky - Poetry Study  P. 372            Students should read the poem carefully and be familiar with its background.
